

Executive Summary

PPE 639 PJ “AIDS, I know”

- Aim and Objectives

The aims of this project are:-

- (i) to provide basic sex education;
- (ii) to raise the awareness of risk behaviours;
- (iii) to provide life-skills based HIV education;
- (iv) to promote “have your own condom” concept;
- (v) to advocate students contributed to AIDS prevention;
- (vi) to teach students on safer sex and use a condom;
- (vii) to raise young people’ understanding on AIDS prevention from real cases through dramas; and
- (viii) to encourage young people to make responsible choices.

The objectives of this project are:-

- (i) Interactive shows on school tour: After the completion of 38 dramas in school touring shows, it is expected to directly benefit about 13,300 to 19,000 teachers, students and parents;
- (ii) Brochures, commitment cards, questionnaires production: After the completion of 38 dramas in school touring shows, it is expected to directly benefit about 13,300 to 19,000 teachers, students and parents; Assume the students share the booklet to at least one his/her friend, it is expected to indirectly benefit about 13,300 to 19,000 young people;
- (iii) Public tour shows: After the completion of three games in public touring shows, it is expected to directly benefit about 900 to 1,500 members in public; and
- (iv) As a whole, it is expected to benefit a total of 27,500 to 39,500 persons.

- Project design

- (i) Interactive shows on school tour : 38 dramas, directly benefit about 13,300 to 19,000 teachers, students and parents;
- (ii) Brochures, commitment cards, questionnaires production, directly benefit about 13,300 to 19,000 teachers, students and parents;
- (iii) Public tour shows : 3 shows, directly benefit about 900 to 1,500

- Target population

- (i) Number of audience of interactive drama shows on school (13,300-19,000)
- (ii) Number of audience of drama shows on public (900-1,500)
- (iii) Number of brochures, commitment cards and questionnaires distributed (13,300-19,000)

- Main achievements

- (i) the basic sex education for student after drama performed
- (ii) concept of risk about AIDS/HIV for student after drama performed
- (iii) "everyone has a condom" concept after drama Performed
- (iv) promotion of the awareness and prevention of AIDS to more people after drama performed

- Conclusions

- (i) Number of interactive drama shows on school (38)
- (ii) Number of drama shows on public (3)
- (iii) Number of audience of interactive drama shows on school (13,300-19,000)
- (iv) Number of audience of drama shows on public (900-1,500)
- (v) Number of brochures, commitment cards and questionnaires distributed (13,300-19,000)
- (vi) Number of VCD produced (1)
- (vii) 93.90 % of the students/youth increasing or having more understanding on the basic sex education after drama performed
- (viii) 93.02 % of the students/youth increasing or having more understanding on concept of risk about AIDS/HIV after drama performed
- (ix) 93.23 % of the students/youth increasing or having more understanding on "everyone has a condom" concept after drama performed
- (x) 94.92 % of the students/youth increasing or having more understanding on promotion of the awareness and prevention of AIDS to more people after drama performed